Railway Heritage Conference: Opportunities and Challenges

Session: TINHATT Discussion

CHRIS LE MARSHALL

October 2009
Why bother?
This is why
Its about engagement
Talking and Listening
Learning

- assistance in procurement of essential parts at competitive prices;
- provision of expertise and advice in relation to legislation and regulation impacting on the sector;
- advice and assistance to start-up organisations;
- assistance in marketing the tourist and heritage sector worldwide through the provision of an international web-based directory;
How to Ensure Your Heritage Organisation’s Sustainability by Securing the Right Capability and Capacity in the “Human Capital” Area

- identification of sources of funding for members;
- provision of data related to the economic and employment benefits of tourist trains;
- influencing world bodies on behalf of the sector to achieve optimal outcomes;
- where local and regional organisations do not exist, representing the interests of the sector to national governments so that tourist and heritage icons are preserved;
- promoting research for use by members related to the economic benefits created at regional and local levels by tourist and heritage railway organisations; and
- encouraging research in areas related to market development opportunities for the sector.
If you do not have a TINHATT

Knowledge, capability and capacity will be lost to the detriment of the sector